

Metadata Management - the way to Open Science

Metadata Workshop, 22. June 2016

Location: University of Vienna, Aula am Campus

The Workgroup Cluster I "Metadata" has organized a full day workshop regarding Metadata and Open Science.

- When: June 22nd 2016, From 9 am to 5 pm
- Where: University of Vienna, Aula am Campus (Spitalgasse 2, 1090 Vienna)

Agenda

09:00-09:10 Susanne Blumesberger (University of Vienna): Welcome and Opening Notes

09:10-10:00 Keynote: Roberto Barbera (University of Catania, Italy): From Metadata to Open Data to Open Science

10:00-10:30 Tim Head: How to get to a bright future of reusable science

10:30-11:00 Anna Fensel (STI Innsbruck, University of Innsbruck): Towards Semantic APIs for Research Data Services

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-12:00 Walter Koch (TU Graz): Aggregation and Management of Metadata in the Context of Europeana

12:00-12:30 Matej Durco, (Austrian Academy of Sciences) Metadata for the Humanities – a use case from ÖAW

12:30-13:00 Georg Neubauer (Danube University Krems): Visualization of typed links in linked data

13:00-13:45 Lunch Break

13:45-14:00 Barbara Petritsch (IST Austria): Metadata for research data in practice

14:00-14:15 Andreas Jeitler (University of Klagenfurt): Accessibility Metadata - Metadata accessibility

14:15-14:45 Sarah Teetor (University of Vienna): The Challenges of Building and Maintaining an Image Database

14:45-15:00 Coffee break

15:00-15:15 Jeanne Holm (CIO, City of LA, California): Open Data with Citizen Science

15:15-15:30 Sandor Kopacsi (University of Vienna): Classification Server

15:30-15:45 Stefan Szepe (University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna): Metadata Challenges at the University of Music and Performing Arts

15:45-16:00 José Luis Preza Díaz (University of Vienna): Automated Information Enrichment for a Better Search

16:00-17:00 Panel discussion and Closing Remarks