

Digital Curation Centre and e-Infrastructures Austria: Data Management Plan (DMP) Workshop

Thursday 17th November, 2016, 9:30-16:30

Location: OeAD (Österreichischer Austauschdienst), 1010 Vienna, Ebendorferstrasse 7

Agenda

Time	Session	Speaker
09:30	Welcome and introductions	Paolo Budroni
09:45	Horizon 2020 and the Open Research Data pilot - What is required of participants? - How to comply and be open? - FAIR Data Management in H2020 - What support is available (incl. outlook on 2017)	Sarah Jones
10:30	Coffee
11:00	Data Management Plans - The value of plans and planning - How to develop DMPs - EC DMP template - Demo of DMPonline (incl. outlook on 2017)	Sarah Jones
11:45	Practical exercise: supporting DMPs 4 breakout groups working with use cases; subsequent reports - What help is needed? - Who should do what? - What role should national services play?	All
13:00	Lunch
14:15	National and shared services: lessons from elsewhere - The DCC model and other comparators - The range of services to provide - Lessons from the DCC experience and RDA National Data Services interest group	Kevin Ashley
15:15	Panel Discussion on national and shared services - What would be useful in an Austrian context/German speaking countries? - What to deliver locally and what nationally? - Where next for the Austrian landscape? Chair: Paolo Budroni (Vienna University Library) Panelists: - Kevin Ashley (DCC) - Sarah Jones (University of Glasgow/DCC) - Judith Rabfogel-Scheer (Federal Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology - BMVIT) - Maria Seissl (Director Vienna University Library) - Peter Seitz (Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economics - BMWFW)
16:15	Wrap up	e-Infrastructures Austria/DCC
16:30	Close	